

Damita Jo is a very down to earth, fun loving person. She loves to cook, travel, shop, read and try new things. She's also the proud mother of an energetic 6 year old boy and Team Mom for his flag football team. She is currently enrolled at UMUC, majoring in Business Administration and looking forward to starting an event planning business in the future.

Damita feels that family and friendship should be cherished and loves the positivity within positive sisterhood!

Positive Three's

Think before you speak, think before you act and love before it's too late!

Positive Thought

Its good that everyone has different opinions, if not everyone would be driving a car just like yours. Be proud to be an individual!
