

Erica Thomas is a easy going, laid back, creative Positive Sister that loves Sports and a true Virgo. She attended the University of Maryland, College Park for a degree in Business and later found her passion was in Computers - she became a Positive Sister to make a difference in the Community while sharing the bond of sisterhood.

In her spare time Erica likes to design Web Sites, Paint, spend time with family and friends, cook and also travel.

Positive Three's:

Always do what you say - Never give expecting something in return - Live by example

Positive Thought:

There are two ways of exercising ones strength - one way is pushing down and the second is pulling up - be wise about exerting your own!
