

Sharon is an independent mother who has raised a daughter while maintaining a career as well as achieving her personal goals in life. Sharon is affectionately called "Bubbe" by her 15 month old grandson. She is a very caring person who places great importance on her relationships with her family and friends. Spiritually plays an important role in her daily life as well as in the lives of those dearest to me. She loves to look good and takes a lot of enjoyment in staying active. Her passion is planning events from Birthday Parties to Upscale social events.
