

Born in 1982, Shontia is known as Shon to her friends and family. She is loving wife, mother of two and a true friend to many. Those who know her, describe her as determined, sassy and playful, but she's quick to remind you that she also likes to maintain order.

She lets nothing get in her way of obtaining her goals and is currently working towards obtaining a degree in accounting and plans to start her own accounting firm in the future. Shontia's hobbies include skating, singing, cooking, hanging with her family as well as the girls, and traveling.

Positive three's

Live... to the fullest! Love... your enemies! Trust... in the Father!

Positive thoughts

Never get comfortable where you are. Always strive to get your next level!

Don't focus on where you are, but focus and see yourself where God has destined you to be!
